Course Descriptions

ART 1301 Art Appreciation (3 semester hours) This course examines the visual arts as expressions of human creativity, culture, and meaning. Students will explore diverse artistic traditions through visual, cultural, and interpretive frameworks, developing skills in analyzing and evaluating works of art. Emphasis is placed on visual literacy and aesthetic awareness within a Christian worldview, engaging art as both cultural artifact and theological conversation partner that reflects humanity's pursuit of truth, beauty, and transcendence for faithful living and service.

BIBL 1302 New Testament Survey (3 semester hours) Life and teachings of Jesus in the Gospels, expansion of early Christianity in Acts, teachings of the Pauline Epistles, General Epistles, and Revelation.

BIBL 1304 Methods in Biblical Interpretation (3 semester hours; Certificate) Introduction to biblical analysis, canonicity, transmission, and interpretation.

BIBL 5099/6099* New Testament Use of the Old Testament (3 semester hours; Bachelor/Graduate) This course examines how New Testament authors interpret, employ, and activate Old Testament traditions. Students will explore how these traditions function within the New Testament through historical, theological, and literary frameworks, while also considering how these interpretive approaches inform faithful reading and teaching of Scripture within contemporary ministry contexts.

BIBL 5099/6099* Psalms (3 semester hours; Bachelor/Graduate) An in-depth study of the Book of Psalms with special emphasis on the historical/cultural context, literary structure, theological implications, and its contemporary relevance.

COMM 1101 Communication and Technology I (1 semester hour; Certificate) Develop basic technological and communication skills. This course will cover areas including, but not limited to: writing, public speaking, and the use of technology. Emphasis will be given to the basic elements of choosing and narrowing a topic, finding theological library resources, and thesis development.

MNST 2301 Spiritual Formation (3 semester hours) Experiential study of factors impacting formation of a minister's spiritual life; development of a ministry of spiritual direction in the church.

MNST 2320/3300 Principles of Preaching (3 semester hours) Study of the principles of sermon preparation and delivery. Prerequisites: Biblical/Theological Core MNST 6302 Evangelism and Discipleship (3 semester hours) A study of the biblical and theological principles of effective evangelism including both its individual and corporate expression. Special attention will be given to contemporary models of evangelism.
